

Mr. Peter Quattromani has served as Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer for United Cerebral Palsy of Rhode Island (UCPRI). Prior to leading UCP, Mr. Quattromani worked as the director of policy and legislative affairs for the office of Governor Lincoln Almond and held positions with The Futures Health Group and The May Institute. Throughout his career, Mr. Quattromani has focused on supporting individuals with developmental disabilities. He has served on boards and commissions including United Cerebral Palsy (National), The Providence Plan, Paratransit Task Force, Interagency Coordinating Council and Rhode Island Kids Count. He is the immediate past chair of the UCP Professional Council, a group of five UCP affiliate executive directors who directly advise the Chief Executive Officer of UCP National. Mr. Quattromani has been a Vice Chairman and Director of Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Rhode Island, Inc. since April 3, 2017 and July 2015 respectively. Mr. Quattromani earned his Bachelor's Degree from Tufts University and his MBA from Boston College.